Opening Of the New Autumn

Season. Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, October First, Second, Third

"First View" French and English Pattern Hats and Bonnets and Millinery Novelties,

Selected by our Miss Nellis in Paris and London. The special display will extend through Wednesday and Thursday.

More than ever this business appeals to your intelligent self interest. We commence this fall with an absolutely new and fresh stock, much personally selected in foreign markets, so that our goods are different from the usual. Back and forth the great Atlantic liners have been carrying the thinkers and managers for many of the stocks. Their eager earnestness to bring the right things was intense. You'll appreciate this and understand it better as the season lengthens.

Counting the stocks now open and opening, they form a vast aggregation of specialties selected with a thorough knowledge of local tastes, and embrace the very latest colors, conceptions, combinations and creations of the cleverest artists of the old and new worlds. Many things are exclusive-only here. Many stocks are matchless-largest assort ments. The prices—guaranteed the lowest anywhere for like qualities are only made possible by the broad and liberal scale upon which our transactions are conducted.

The New Dress Goods.

We have an ideal stock, embracing the cleverest and latest creations of the leading French, English, German and American looms. All the fashionable rough-surfaced fabrics-Tweeds, Cheviots and Boucle Cloths -and all the popular smooth effects, The bulk of the stock was personally selected, and is confined exclusively

The New Silks.

Fashion says Silk for gowns for street and evening wear, as well as for many other purposes of dress and adornment. We offer myriads of new patterns, new weaves, new beauties. All the daintiest and most fetching novelties and conceits. Original novelties stand beside skillful readaption of old and familiar ideas, presented under new forms and new color combinations, among which predominate iridescent effects in artistic spray, scroll and floral de-

Of these we are showing Taffetas Chine Oriental, Taffetas Chameleon, Gros de Tour Faconne Chameleon, Drap d'or Chameleon Broche, Poult de Soie Glace Broche, Broche Pompadour, Peau de Soie Chine, Taffetas Chine Jardiniere, Poult de Soie Chine, Taffetas Chameleon Pekin Stripe, Gros de Tour Broche Persian, &c.

The New Wraps and Suits

Are dressy, stylish and beautiful, with the freshest fashion thought sewed into every seam. Among the favorite fabrics for suits are Box Cloth, Toule Cheviot, Montagnac, Esquimau - For wraps, Boucle Plush, Velour de Nord, Box Cloth, Lyons Velvets. Strapping of the seams of many of the jackets and suits is a prominent feature. The jackets, with tight-fitting back and castellated revers and collar faced with velvet, are very chic and pretty. Capes, as fashionable as ever, are cut longer and fuller. The Golf or Inverness comes in an improved form. We've a very choice stock.

The New--

But we haven't space to mention the Art Needlework-the Cut Crystalthe Bric-a-Brac-the China and Glass Ware-the Boys' and Girls' Clothing—the Infants Outfittings the Parisian Bridal Trousseaux-the Handkerchiefs-the Gloves and the balance of the sixty-eight complete stores under this one great roof. They all have their complement of Fall's fresh fancies-and are splendidly equipped for active service.

Most careful and comprehensive arrangements have been made throughout the entire store. Many departments have been enlarged, rearranged or more conveniently located; some new ones have been added-and our excellent system still further improved. We are thus enabled to render even better service than heretofore to the vast army of customers to whom our firm name is "a household word." Most cordially we invite inspection of thousands of objects of interest now on view that were never seen here be-

HOME.

A Chance to Furnish It.

Do you know that the complimentary prices made as Souvenirs of The Palais Royal "Opening" include housefurnishings of every description?

Take elevator to fourth floor for upholstery, furniture, etc. And please ask to be shown the new Curtains. The collection has been much admired, especially the Irish Point Curtains offered at $3.98 instead of $5 pair; the real Brussels Curtains at $5.98 instead of $7.50 pair; the clever imitations at $1.25, instead of $1.75 a pair, and the Swiss Tambour Curtains at $3.98 instead of $4.98 pair.

We think this Autumn's gathering of Lace and Heavy Curtains will be quoted as the most beautiful and complete in the city. Link the lowest prices and will you not do yourself an injustice by not seeing the stock?

Those making selections have the advantage of experienced men to fix the poles and properly hang and drape the curtains. Upholstery work of all kind done with equal skill and at nominal cost when materials are selected here.

Major George A. Armes, who was ar-rested Friday evening for writing an aleged improper letter to the lieutenant general of the army, was, as announced in The Star, brought before Judge Bradley of the District Supreme Court on a writ of habeas corpus shortly after 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon, by Lieut. Cummings, the adjutant of the arsenal post. In making the return to the writ, Lieut. Cummings, by direction of the commandant of the post, Col. Closson, exhibited to Judge Bradley the order for Major Armes' arrest, signed by Adjutant General Vincent, and explained that the prisoner was held in obedience to that order. Mr. Jackson H. Ralston, bf counsel for Major Armes, stated that he would contend that the arrest had been made without warrant of law, and that it was a serious violation of the liberty guaranteed to every citizen. He was not, however, prepared then to argue the matter, and he had no doubt that both sides would be glad to have the case go over for a few days. He suggested, therefore, that Major Armes' personal recognizance be taken for his appearance, and that the hearing be set down for next Friday.

Lieut. Cummings explained that he had nothing more to do in the matter than to present the prisoner to the court in obedience to the writ. Judge Bradley said that a very important question was at issue in the matter—the right to make and maintain such an arrest—and he had no doubt that both the War Department and the petitioner would be glad to have the matter judicially determined. In reply to an inquiry of the court Major Armes stated that he would be in court when wanted, and Judge Bradley then released him on his personal recognizance in the sum of $500, and set the hearing of the case down for next Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. eral of the army, was, as announced in The Star, brought before Judge Bradley of the

the Capitol, 35 B street northwest, is about to resume work in the instruction of young men in the profession of electrical engineering. Addresses by the faculty will be given Wednesday evening, beginning at 6 o'clock, in connection with the opening exercises of the school. The institution is now supplied with its own electric lighting plant, which insures perfect illumination. The building will be open for the inspection of students of electricity and others interested in the science the first three days of this week. The fourteenth session of Norwood Institute begins Wednesday, October 2. Among the instructors and lecturers may be noted Prof. A. P. Montague, Ph. D., dean of Columbian University; Prof. Geo. J. MR. LUNG DENIES IT ALL

He Says Miss Blanchard's Story is Purely Imaginative. Mr. Fred. J. Lung, the contractor who was made defendant in a suit begun Saturday by Miss Susie E. Blanchard, alleging that he had ruined her under promise of marriage, said today to a Star reporter that notice of the suit had not yet been served pon him. He would, however, he declared, mmediately file an answer to the charges without waiting for the formality of a legal

"I deny all the charges she has made against me," he said, "save the charge that refused to marry her. The statement that I induced her to come and live with me as my wife is simply preposterous. My sister keeps the house. She had with her all the time Miss B. was with her in the house her daughter, nineteen years of age; her son, fourteen years of age, and a large share of the time another son, twenty-one years of age, and a sister, a young lady grown. I say the story is preposterous that I should take Miss Bianchard into my sister's family to live and cohabit with me as my wife.

"Miss Blanchard was a boarder in the family for two months, the same as I was. She made her own arrangements for board with my sister. She is not, as represented, a simple country girl, but she has seen many years and much of the world.

"I Lever sought her hand in marriage. I never promised to marry her. I never told any one I would marry her. I never seduced or attempted to seduce her. I never took or attempted to take any liberties with her person. Her whole story has ne foundation outside of her imagination." induced her to come and live with me as

ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH.

The New Edifice Formally Opened for The new church edifice of St. Andrew's

Protestant Episcopal parish, at the corne of 14th and Corcoran streets, was formally opened for worship yesterday. Holy comnunion was observed at 7:30 and 9 o'clock the services being conducted by Rev. J. B. Perry, the rector, assisted by Rev. Mr. Johnson of College Park, Md. Bishop Paret delivered the sermon at the 11 o'clock service, the attendance at which completely filled the new edifice and made it necessary to open the doors into the old chapel to accommodate the overflow. The bishop's discourse dwelt upon the peculiar relations between pastor and people. A new chorus choir has been organized and at each of the services yesterday special musical selections were rendered. The full chorus was as follows: Sopranos, Mrs. Kitty Thompson-Berry (solo), Miss Isabel B. Ream, Miss Laura Bangs and Miss Gertrude E. Holden; altos, Miss Elinore U. Simonds (solo), Miss Anna M. Nixon, Miss Bertha Dawson and Miss Mae D. Jack; tenors, Messrs. Melville D. Hensey (solo), H. L. Murdoch, Dr. J. Walter Hollingsworth, Dr. H. MacNames and Mr. Harry S. Childs; basses, Messrs. Charles E. Rice (solo), A. T. Ernest, Clarence H. Zepp and Col. Cecil Clay; organist and director, Mr. James W. Cheny. The corner stone of the new edifice was laid by the present rector July 1, 1894, and the completed building was occupied for publis services for the first time yesterday. A complete description of the structure has been published in The Star. chapel to accommodate the overflow. The

Want It in Washington.

At the last meeting of the District Encampment of the Union Veteran Legion steps were taken for the opening of a campaign the object of which is to secure the selection of Washington as the place for holding the next annual encampment of that organization. The legion meets in October in Buffalo, and a committee has been appointed from the local body to present the invitation of the national capital to the grand body to come to Washington in 1896. In anticipation of the efforts that are to be made at the national encampment, the committee has issued an address to the local members, urging them to go to Buffalo and use all their energies to the desired end. Donations for this purpose are asked, to be collected this evening. The committee consists of M. M. Whitney, chairman; T. B. Amiss, J. C. McKibben, P. J. Duffy, Wm. H. Livermore, Dennis O'Connor, Herman Perls and M. E. Urell.
